

SkyWorld, PR1MA launch SkyAwani PRIMA Residences after balloting saw 492 successful homebuyers

By Allyson Tan / theedgemalaysia.com

24 Jul 2025, 10:38 am

(Front row, from left) SkyWorld Development Bhd CEO Lee Chee Seng, Deputy Prime Minister II Datuk Seri Fadillah Yusof, Housing and Local Government Minister Nga Kor Ming, Deputy Minister of Housing and Local Government Datuk Hajah Aiman Athirah Sabu, and Housing and Local Government Ministry secretary general Datuk Wira M Noor Azman Taib at the SkyAwani PRIMA Residences launch.

KUALA LUMPUR (July 24): SkyWorld Development Bhd, in a joint venture with Perbadanan PR1MA Malaysia (PR1MA), launched SkyAwani PRIMA Residences on Wednesday (July 23) at the Asean Real Estate Conference, held at the KL Convention Centre. After balloting, 492 successful homebuyers were selected out of 3,000 applicants.

Additionally, the project offers Maybank MyDeco Financing, allowing buyers to finance both home purchase and interior works for up to 120% financing capped at RM250,000, with the additional 30% covering interior works and design, furnishings, fittings, aesthetics, and décor.

"As part of our commitment to Make Living Better, SkyWorld is proud to deliver homes that are affordable, well-located and thoughtfully equipped to meet evolving homeowner needs. With SkyAwani PRIMA, buyers no longer need to delay or stress about renovations. They can plan, finance, and personalise their interiors right from the start in one seamless journey," said Skyworld Development Bhd chief executive officer Lee Chee Seng.

Located in Brickfields on a 1.97-acre leasehold site, the RM192 million SkyAwani PRIMA Residences offers 492 units of 900 square feet each, priced at RM390,000. SkyAwani PRIMA Residences is the newest addition to its Awani Series.